CANADA – CUBA GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES 2019

Immerse yourself in Cuba's extraordinary culture as you partner with a University of Matanzas student and participate in a wide range of activities designed to allow you to experience much of what this beautiful island has to offer: history, music, politics, dance, economics, art... and, most significantly, rising to the challenge of becoming TRAVELERS NOT TOURISTS!

WHAT'S DIFFERENT ABOUT YAI:

- Cuban University Student Partners
- University of Matanzas Professors
- YAI Rep is an educator, program designer & veteran Cuba expert
- Translator & Cuban Leaders on site with group 24/7
- Cuban experiences interpreted & explained by new Cuban friends
- Your Needs + Your Wishes = Your Trip uniquely designed

All travel and accommodation arrangements are provided by Laking & Rhoades Travel – industry leaders in Central Ontario for 50 years

Cuban program designed and provided by YAI. Cuban hosting provided by the University of Matanzas.

Youth Ambassadors International provides unique, high quality academic programming – experiential and exploratory; meaningful and memorable; challenging and creative; interactive and international – YAI students are travelers, not tourists!

Academic Lectures – University of Matanzas Professors present lectures on core academic topics selected by your teacher. Translator will be provided.

Interchange Component – visiting students will be matched with Cuban University students on as close to a 2:1 ratio as is possible. They will build their friendships through a series of activities where they work together – dance, music, tours, trips to markets, etc.

Meaningful Tours – whether it be Havana, Matanzas, Varadero or a small rural plantation, the Canadian students will be guided by real experts – Cubans who will share their life experiences in a way that is both knowledgeable and relevant.

Cultural Immersion – Music, Art, Dance, all that gives Cuba its distinct flavour will be yours to explore and your Cuban partners will lead the way. You truly are Canada’s Youth Ambassadors to these Cubans and you’ll have an opportunity to share our culture with the Cuban students. All of these interactions will lead to our final event... Canada – Cuba Cultural Festival – It’s a fantastic final night that will last forever for everyone involved!

Becoming travelers = building friendships

Varadero Beach

A Traditional Cuban Meal

DAY 1 – Check into our rooms at the University of Matanzas – right by the beach in Varadero! Our hosts will show us the hotel and area amenities. Perhaps it’s time to explore the beach?! After dinner, a presentation of the delegations.

DAY 2 – A University of Matanzas Professor will present a Lecture/ Discussion about the History of Cuba. Ask questions to understand the Cuban perspective. Then, a Cuban dance lesson! Followed by the official “Welcome Ceremony” after dinner.

DAY 3 - Double Decker Bus Tour of Varadero in the morning, followed by group activities like games, sports, etc. And then finally, some Cuban dance lessons!

DAY 4 – An informative lecture on Cuba’s economy and economic history in the morning. In the afternoon, find your Cuban Partners. The selection process is hilarious then, take time to get to know your ‘Cuban Best Friend’.

Day 5 – An informative lecture on the “Athens of Cuba” Matanzas, followed by art activities, and in the evening, group dance activities.

DAY 6 – Tour the amazing San Severino Fortress in the morning, followed by an in-depth tour of Matanzas, and then conversational Spanish lessons.

DAY 7 – An informative lecture on the electoral system in Cuba, followed by free time, and then Cuba Night!

DAY 8 – Start the day with an Education Professor who will lead a comparative discussion of our two education systems. After lunch, a visit to the Bellamar Caves, and in the evening: Candy Night!

DAY 9 – Start the day with a lecture from Jose Marti, Nationalist Hero! Then, Group dance lessons, and after dinner the Night of “Orichas”!

DAY 10 – A fun-filled day trip to the Varadero markets and beaches. In the evening, present “Canada Night”!

DAY 11 - In the morning, tour Cardenaz. Then, a trip to “Los Dionisias” a coffee plantation. The, return to the University for an evening of dance!

DAY 12 - In the morning, a lecture on the history of the city of Havana. Then, delegation time in the afternoon, and group dance lesson in the evening.

DAY 13 - An early departure for Havana and a full day tour of this historic city.

DAY 14 - Visit local high school “Martin Klein” and meet Cuban students your own age. In the afternoon, prepare for, and in the evening present the Cuba-Canada Cultural Festival!

DAY 15 - It’s time to go home whether we want to or not! Say goodbye to your new friends, and board the motorcoach to the airport for your flight home.
